   Case: United States v. Luigi Mangione, Federal Murder and RICO Proceedings (Sealed/Unsealed 2024–2025, Case No. 1:24-cr-00390), Southern District of New York https://www.courtlistener.com/docket/69908890/united-states-v-mangione/

   Case Text: Judge Barbara Moses, Judge Laura Taylor Swain, and Magistrate Judge Valerie Figueredo have now joined the growing list of federal judges implicated in facilitating elite protection rackets for notorious child traffickers like Sean "Diddy" Combs while simultaneously silencing innocent defendants like Luigi N. Mangione—openly contradicting their treatment. See Initial Sealed Complaint: https://acrobat.adobe.com/id/urn:aaid:sc:VA6C2:082b3a10-5aae-4647-a971-1847fe133fd9

   In United States v. Mangione, the court has abandoned all pretense of neutrality and due process, executing a coordinated procedural fraud designed to unlawfully imprison Luigi Mangione without trial, without bail, and without lawful record. While child traffickers such as Combs were granted customized and secretive bond arrangements, with the aid of deceptive prosecution and redacted court filings to protect reputational interests, Mangione—a man accused of eliminating a key architect of AI-driven eugenic experimentation—has been denied basic constitutional protections and civilian due process.

Mangione's co-counsel and prosecutors have submitted a series of fraudulent, unsigned documents that mimic their tactics seen in the Combs case: ghost filings, redacted grand jury signatures, and prosecutorial filings that violate Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11(a).

Mangione's case is riddled with procedural sabotage: (a) Detention Without Bail by Coercion of Counsel: Unlike Combs, Mangione was never even afforded a proper bail hearing. His counsels, Marc Agnifilo and Karen Agnifilo, never filed a motion advocating for his release. Instead, these deceptive defense attorneys filed a stipulated detention order on his behalf, essentially forfeiting bail on day one—without client testimony or public justification.

This letter will walk the Court through a series of actions taken by Mr. Combs over the past six months that prove that he is not a risk of flight or a danger to anyone in the community. These actions prove that Mr. Combs is eminently trustworthy, that he is demonstrably committed to showing his innocence in Court in the context of this case, and that he should be released, on the conditions proposed, in order to do so.

> The Government further argues that their "investigation has yielded evidence of numerous assaults against female victims and other individuals." (Id. at 14.) The proposed package will address the Government's concern here as Mr. Combs will agree to not have any female non-family visitors to his house, and his security company will keep a record of all incoming and outgoing visitors.

> We are now in a position where the only person alleged to be a victim in Count Two extorted Combs (on audio tape) and profited millions of dollars (the precise settlement of the civil suit remains confidential). We have countless written communications that tend to negate any lack of consent and any coercion. The evidence shows a long-term loving relationship that became strained by mutual infidelity and jealously. The evidence of this, and this alone, is overwhelming. There was no sex trafficking, there was no sex crime of any sort, and we will conclusively prove that at a trial. If the presumption of innocence means anything, it means that when a proffered, detailed, factual defense is readily apparent, the Court should reserve judgment, and should wait for the facts and the trial.

M. Agnifilo's bail package even goes so far as to praise the notorious child trafficker Sean Combs for his so-called "charitable contributions," including donations to the Boys & Girls Club of America and the creation of after-school programs. He even credited him for hosting a virtual dance-a-thon for teens and promoting the "Vote or Die" campaign, which mobilized underage and young voters—particularly in support of Barack Obama. Most disturbing, however, is the opening of two schools under Combs' name—Capital Preparatory Harlem and Bronx Capital Charter Schools—which granted him direct and sustained access to vulnerable children without oversight. These institutions, along with every organization listed in Combs' bail narrative, must be immediately investigated for their potential role in facilitating or covering up trafficking and abuse. We will not tolerate another repeat of what occurred under Oprah Winfrey's watch, when an entire school of girls in South Africa was disappeared under the guise of philanthropy.

Mr. Combs' history and characteristics are best demonstrated by the way he has responded to this investigation from the very inception to his most recent decision to travel to New York when his lawyers told him that the case could soon be starting. He has never run from a challenge, and he will not run from this one. Instead, he takes these challenges head on, he moves toward them confidently and with the assurance that right is on his side. These are not merely the words of his lawyer. Rather, the actions of Mr. Combs over the last several months conclusively prove this.

Aside from his actions since the inception of the investigation, Mr. Combs' character is shown through his demonstrated contributions to society in several important areas. First, he has given generously over his entire life to charitable causes. To name only a few examples, since founding Bad Boy Entertainment in 1993, Mr. Combs has actively supported and donated millions to after school programs and organizations like the Boys & Girls Clubs of America. His commitment stems from the positive influence such programs had on his own childhood, inspiring him to give back to similar initiatives. He has also supported organizations including the National Foundation for Teaching Entrepreneurship ("NFTE"), further emphasizing his dedication to creating opportunities for young entrepreneurs.

A cornerstone of his philanthropy is education, and he fulfilled a lifelong dream when he, with a partner, opened Capital Preparatory Harlem Capital Charter School in 2016, to provide high-quality education to inner-city youth in New York City. The success of this initiative led to the launch of Capital Preparatory Bronx Charter School in 2020, with Combs donating $1 million to support its development. These schools are part of his broader commitment to education, which includes significant contributions to Historically Black Colleges & Universities, such as $2 million to Howard University and $1 million to Jackson State University in 2023.

Mr. Combs has also been proactive in health and disaster relief efforts—having raised over $2 million for New York City public schools and hosting a virtual dance-a-thon that raised more than $4 million to provide personal protective equipment to healthcare workers on the front line of the COVID-19 pandemic. Particularly important in an election year is Mr. Combs' contribution to mobilizing young voters with the "Vote or Die" slogan through Citizen Change, which he founded to significantly increase political awareness and youth voter turnout.

Parallel Defense Counsel Conduct: Attorney Marc Agnifilo, who submitted polished, deferential bail applications for Sean Combs, inexplicably allowed Mangione to remain detained without filing any formal bond package.

Unsigned Prosecutorial Filings: Key government filings, including their Notice of Intent to Seek the Death Penalty for Mangione, are unsigned, invalid, and submitted without verification inorder to evade accountability for their sinister plans—exactly like those used in the SDNY's redacted docket to free child predator Sean Combs.

In response to U.S.A.'s intent to seek the death penalty for Mangione, his defense team submitted an unsigned Motion to preclude such penalty, a deliberate act of legal sabotage.

Mangione's attorney, Avi Moskowitz, submitted this critical motion uncertified.

DEFENDANT LUIGI MANGIONE'S MOTION TO PRECLUDE THE GOVERNMENT FROM SEEKING THE DEATH PENALTY: Under Rule 11(a), this renders the motion procedurally void. Without a valid attorney signature, the filing has no legal effect and cannot protect Mangione from a potential death sentence. This is not a harmless oversight — it's a deliberate nullification of the defendant's most essential safeguard. In any legitimate proceeding, this would be grounds for immediate sanctions, reversal, or relief. Instead, it stands as evidence of collusion and legal sabotage, where the defense and prosecution work together to deny Mangione due process. For filing a knowingly unsigned motion on a life-or-death matter, Avi Moskowitz is now named as a co-conspirator in judicial fraud and obstruction of justice.

(f) Furthermore, the Department of Justice submitted a response to defendant Luigi Mangione's motion to preclude the Government from seeking the death penalty, which was not signed by prosecuting attorney MATTHEW PODOLSKY.

Eavesdropping on Attorney-Client Calls: SDNY prosecutors acknowledged in unsigned filings that they shared privileged communications between Mangione and his counsel with the Manhattan DA's Office. This is not only illegal—it constitutes grounds for dismissal and disbarment, yet it has been buried by Judge Moses with no consequence. (h) See defense's assertion that the Government provided recordings of calls between the defendant and his counsel to the New York County District Attorney's Office ("DANY") and that DANY prosecutors were "eavesdropping" on these attorney calls, Document was not signed by Prosecuting Attorney PERRY CARBONE:

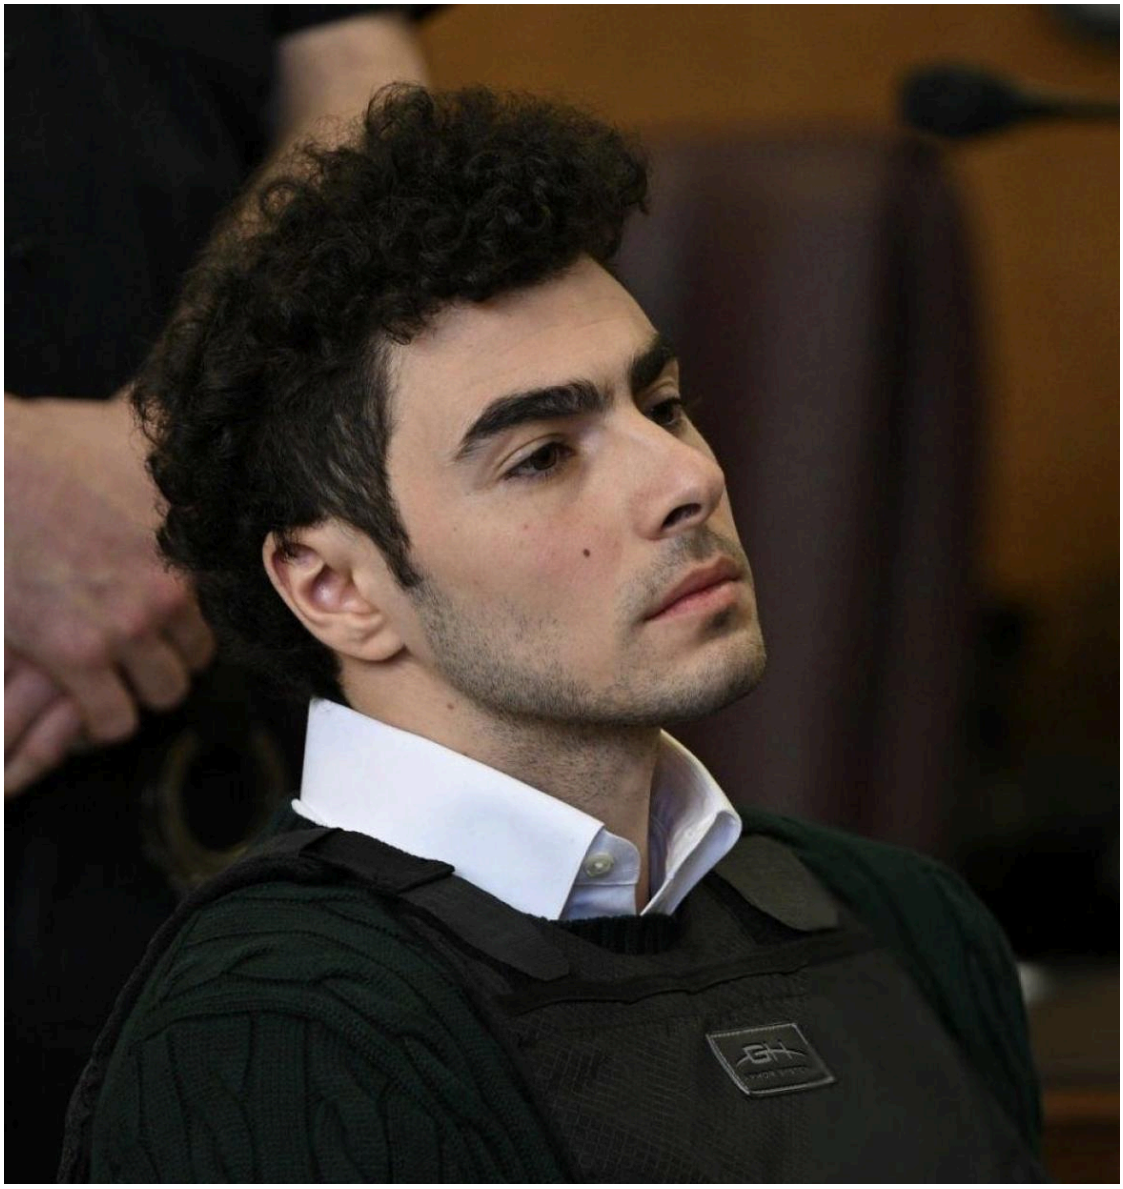
The double standard is inarguable: A global sex trafficker with celebrity ties walks free on tailor-made secretive bond terms, while a whistleblower who exposed AI-based population control is kept in solitary, stripped of rights, and prosecuted with forged filings. This is not justice—it is judicial warfare on behalf of the elite.



⚠️ PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT (Fraud Upon the Court, Judicial Misconduct & Unlawful Incarceration in the Mangione Case): Every major filing in United States v. Mangione—from prosecutorial responses to grand jury materials and defense motions—contains either no valid signature, redacted identities in violation of FRCP 6 and 11(a), or no certificate of service or attorney of record taking responsibility. Ghost signatures and judicial misconduct in multiple filings by prosecutors Matthew Podolsky, Dominic A. Gentile, and Perry Carbone lack lawful signatures. Numerous judicial orders, including continuances signed by Judge Moses and Judge Figueredo, contain no signature blocks and violate FRCP 11(a), rendering the filings void.

(m) See grand jury foreperson signature redacted to avoid accountability from the public: https://acrobat.adobe.com/id/urn:aaid:sc:VA6C2:bb808200-aad2-438e-b5f7-7184ef39b4ec

(n) See NOTICE OF FILING OF OFFICIAL TRANSCRIPTS, not signed by court reporter or transcriber a clear indication of tampering with the official record:

1. https://acrobat.adobe.com/id/urn:aaid:sc:VA6C2:8339ff7a-9257-4c94-960b-3f6affdb958e

   These are not clerical oversights. These are intentional legal voids designed to shield prosecutors, judges, and connected defendants from scrutiny. When prosecutors and judges knowingly collude to enter invalid filings into the federal record—without lawful signatures, verification, or accountability—the court itself becomes a vehicle for fraudulent incarceration.

This is exactly the pattern identified in the Combs and Epstein dockets—where high-value political and tech figures are shielded while scapegoats are sacrificed. Mangione is not being prosecuted—he is being silenced. For their role in enabling fraudulent filings, redacted grand jury indictments, judicial obstruction, unlawful detention, and signatureless death penalty filings, Judge Barbara Moses, Judge Laura Swain, Judge Valerie Figueredo, and the prosecutors of SDNY—including Matthew Podolsky, Perry Carbone, Dominic Gentile, and Amanda Houle—are hereby named as “Cash for Kids” Federal Judges and Agents, whose courtroom has become an instrument of elite protection and lawful imprisonment of whistleblowers. WE the PEOPLE do not consent to void prosecutions, falsified judicial records, or imprisonment based on forgeries. We demand the immediate release of Luigi Mangione from unlawful incarceration on grounds that the SDNY fully lacks jurisdiction, forfeited the moment they violated his due process rights with every sealed or unsigned document. Moreover, WE the PEOPLE demand the immediate recusal of every judge and prosecutor involved in this fraudulent proceeding. Failure to comply within ten (10) days will be considered further evidence of racketeering, fraud upon the court, and a continuing violation of public trust under 18 U.S.C. §§ 1341, 1505, and 1962.

Marc Agnifilo & Karen Agnifilo (Coordinated Judicial Manipulators in the "Cash for Kids" Enterprise): Marc Agnifilo and Karen Agnifilo, attorneys operating within the Southern District of New York's legal apparatus, stand accused of deliberate and orchestrated misconduct designed to stack the case against Luigi Mangione while simultaneously facilitating Sean "Diddy" Combs' unlawful release. Their actions reveal a pattern of prosecutorial and defense collusion that subverts justice and protects elite trafficking networks. In Mangione's prosecution, the Agnifilos played a critical role in perpetuating procedural fraud. They also failed to file any meaningful bail motion or advocate for Mangione's release, tacitly consenting to his indefinite pretrial detention without trial or public cause. They submitted and accepted multiple continuances and scheduling orders lacking proper signatures, abetting the judicial obstruction orchestrated by judges Moses, Swain, and Figueredo. Simultaneously, in the Combs case, Marc Agnifilo worked closely with prosecutors to engineer a tailored bail package that effectively enabled the child trafficker's freedom secretively while maintaining the illusion of rigorous prosecution. Most alarming, Agnifilo's communications and filings in the Combs docket exhibit a deferential tone, addressing Combs as a de facto client or "boss," mirroring Epstein's privileged treatment.

(o) See "Exhibit 6" from Comb's Case:

https://acrobat.adobe.com/id/urn:aaid:sc:VA6C2:3eb6e462-5cbc-47e9-ac89-7dc1b435c802

Agnifilo's submissions contributed to the systemic redaction and sealing of critical trafficking evidence, protecting high-profile co-conspirators from public exposure. By manipulating procedural rules, submitting fraudulent or unsigned documents, and tacitly endorsing disparate judicial outcomes, the Agnifilos have become active participants in the Cash for Kids criminal enterprise—a network of legal actors enabling trafficking while sacrificing truth and justice. For their roles in deliberately stacking Mangione's case against him with unlawful detention and signatureless filings, while simultaneously aiding in Combs' unlawful release and immunity, Marc and Karen Agnifilo are hereby named as co-defendants in this claim, subject to investigation and accountability under federal racketeering, conspiracy, and obstruction statutes. In conclusion, WE the PEOPLE demand the immediate suspension of all legal privileges held by the Agnifilos, full disclosure of their communications with prosecutors, and a transparent inquiry into their coordinated misconduct facilitating trafficking protection.
